कौशल KAUSHAL

Internship cum Training Programme

A Unique Initiative
by BHEL

INTERNSHIP cum TRAINING PROGRAMME

In a first of its kind initiative to boost the spirit of Entrepreneurship & Innovation amongst young engineering students, BHEL under its online Internship cum Training programme 'Kaushal', is offering an early opportunity to first/second year students, to learn directly from industry experts, offering a first-hand experience of 'design to manufacturing' industrial practices & technologies and emerging trends. This effort aims to strengthen the active collaboration between academia and Industry for self-reliance in Technology & Innovation.

Towards this, 'SanRachna', a digitally enabled multi-domain collaborative platform has been developed by BHEL, under the aegis of Ministry of Heavy Industries, Govt. of India, with the aim to be a one-stop solution bringing together and enable Start-ups, Entrepreneurs, Industries, Institutes, Students and Researchers, who aspire to create solutions that can transform India.
